1 TODO Story

A mysterious group known only as The Company is behind a major conspiracy that will lead to world domination, and you know too much about them. You are being hunted, but death is not your destiny. The Company believes anyone can be convinced to join them, and you're no different. They've captured and brought you to a remote location to teach compliance. You will be subjected to various forms of brainwashing and torture techniques. Will you succumb to The Company's will, or will you dash their plans and take them out from inside?

2 Characters

2.0.1 Axshun Jaxxon

1. Personality Axshun Jaxxon is a rash individual. He is the Leroy Jenkins of Augmented Escape. He uses brute force and brawn over brains. He leaps before he looks. He also loves fried chicken. He may not always get the job done, but at least he's got chicken.
2. Appearance He has big muscles. He stands 6'6", weighs 280 pounds, is bald, has a goatee, and has one metal pauldron over his right shoulder. The pauldron has a dragon embossment on it. He has tan skin from farming all day. He has no shirt. He has firefighter pants with one leg burnt off at the knee. He wears combat boots.
3. Backstory He is a firefighter that farms chickens in his free time because he likes chicken. Axshun Jaxxon receives a call from Bearsford, South Dakota dispatch. He is sent on a rescue mission. After rescuing the baby chicks in the farm house, he is alerted to the presence of a child. The child is trapped in the farm house loft. The fire burns so hot and brightly, that his firefighter pants catch flame, resulting in the scorch marks on his left pantleg. A wooden beam from the farm house falls onto his head. He is knocked out cold. Ten days later, he awakes in a sick and twisted game of escaping The Company.

2.0.2 Ben Benson

1. Personality Ben Benson is an extremely conservative man born in the secluded areas of Louisiana. He is reserved and quiet. He is cool and calculating. However, when pushed beyond his limits, he is prone to extremely violent outbursts. Whenever possible, Ben Benson will use subterfuge to defeat his enemies. He is the exact opposite of Axshun Jaxxon.

2. Appearance He is a mature, white man that wears button up shirts with sweaters. He near sighted and wears glasses. Fluffy brown hair. He is 5'4" and weighs 120 pounds and has no athletic abilities.
3. Backstory Ben Benson is a Chemistry teacher by trade. In his spare time, he enjoys working at the local car wash. One day, he gets into an argument with his wife, Skylar, over pizza toppings. He gets so angry, he takes their pizza and throws it outside. It lands on their neighbor's house. The next day, a student accidentally mixes the wrong chemicals during the lab and creates mustard gas. This results in an explosion that knocks Ben Benson out. He is taken to the nurse's office. It just so happens that the nurse is an agent of The Company. She takes this chance to abduct the genius Chemistry teacher. He wakes up caught in a web of deception and lies. Can he escape the room?

2.0.3 Yoki Warrior

1. Personality She is a detective, curious by nature. She is a lone with a serious attitude. She can be insensitive to others' plights. She clean, thorough, detailed oriented, and perfectionist. She has depression because of the extinction of her tribe and the disappearance of her lover. Despite her perfectionist attitude, she despises cyborg technology. She especially hates cyborg technology, as she sees it as an abomination and imperfect.
2. Appearance She has light brown skin and long silky hair She wears traditional Native American clothing. Her hair is black and her eyes are also black. As a young woman, she stands 5'3" and weighs 97 pounds. Due to her cyborg reconstruction, her left arm is made of titanium steel alloys. She has an implanted left eye that can perceive ultraviolet and infrared light.
3. Backstory After single combat with a cyborg bear, she falls unconscious from her grievous wounds. Her noble fighting garnered the attention of the omnipresent Company. This prompted them to abduct her into their program. Due to her body being mangled beyond recognition, The Company invested $4 million dollars to rebuild her as cyborg. She is now the thing she hates most: a cyborg.

2.0.4 The Company

1. Backstory In 2018, World War III broke out. Nuclear war raged on for 15 years, destroying the vast majority of the planet and decimating the population to the hundreds of thousands. In the aftermath, a reconstructed, cyborg President Nixon gathered the remnants of the Illuminati and the Free Masons. The resulting merger is The Company. Biding their time, they gathered influence over the years. Now, in the year 2142, The Company has complete anonymous control over the American world government, granting them free reign over North America.
2. Goals The Company currently holds captive the continent of North America. Their ultimate goal is to overthrow the other two remaining world governments: China, and the Afindican Warlords as well as the rogue rebels in Antarctica: The Nomads.
3. Influence and Power Having complete anonymous control over North America gives them access to unlimited natural resources. Using their cyborg technology, they have implanted control chips into the newest generation, giving them access to the largest standing army still in existence today. They utilize The Program to recruit the best of the best of the previous generation, such as Axshun Jaxxon, Ben Benson, and Yoki Warrior.

2.0.8 TODO Mittens

- Mystical cat.
- Appears in dire situations to provide help.
- Requires the player to answer a simple riddle before willing to provide a hint.
- Has a very playful attitude, making light of the player's current situation

3 Core Gameplay

3.1 TODO Mechanics

- Single player.
- Puzzle solving.
- Room is mapped by the HoloLens and augmented to match a scenario.
- 3-4 puzzles placed around the room randomly.
- Each puzzle gives a piece of the answer to escaping the current room.
- Puzzles will be interactable 3D objects in augmented reality.
- Once all puzzles of a room are solved, their answers can be entered into the door (keys, lock code).
- Some puzzles and rooms will have random components in order to prevent "trial and error" attempts through the game.
- Entering a wrong room answer will result in a 1 minute penalty.
- Players will have 1 hour to solve all puzzles in all rooms.

- Scenarios will contain 3 rooms each.
- All rooms must be completed within the time limit to complete the scenario.
- Upon advancing to a new room in the game, the HoloLens will remap the current room the player is in.
 - The player does not have to change rooms themselves.
- Upon successful completion of the scenario, a story prompt will be shown to the player describing the events that follow the escape.
- At 50 minutes remaining, Mittens will appear to give the players a hint in case they're stuck.
 - If a hint is given, Mittens will disappear and reappear at 40, 30, 25, 15, and 10 minutes remaining.
 - Hints will be consistent for each playthrough of the same scenario.

3.2 TODO Goals

- Players win the game if they manage to escape the scenario within an hour.
- After winning, an expository paragraph will be shown to the player to describe what happens following the escape.
- Players lose if time expires.
- After losing, an expository paragraph will be shown to the player to describe what happens to them after their escape fails.

3.3 TODO Hints

- Mittens can give the player several types of hints after the player answers a riddle.
 - Remove Decoys: Remove all or some of the decoys in the room.
 - Puzzle Explanation: Explain part of a puzzle to make it easier for the player to solve.
 - Answer Location: Place a glow on an object required for a puzzle.

4 Puzzle Types

4.1 TODO Acrostic

Hint words with numbers under each letter that map to a phrase.

4.2 TODO Rope Chain

There will be four 20 foot ropes each with four pegs spaced at different distances apart attached along the rope. Only one rope will have the exact peg separation required to insert each peg into four anchored podiums across the room.

4.3 TODO Block and Key

There will be six 1 foot cubes spread across the room. The player will need to place and orient these blocks on a pedestal to create an image by aligning the engravings on each cube. The opposite side of the cube array will then reveal an answer required to escape the room.

4.4 TODO Cryptogram

Encrypted messages that need to be put through a cipher in order to be easily read.

4.5 TODO Connect the Dots

Images drawn may be of other objects in the room. Different shaped dots (e.g. square vs. circle) will connect to make different images. A key will be placed in the room to indicate which dots make the correct image.

4.6 TODO Statues/Totems

3-4 statues or obelisks with images need to be positioned in a particular way to unlock an answer. There will be an image depicting how to orient the statues around the room.
